IT'S A LONG-RUNNING JOKE amongst Adelaidians that the South Australian capital is often the forgotten city. From celebrity concert tours (sorry, Taylor Swift fans), to cultural happenings (although, Adelaide does host WOMAdelaide and the Fringe Festival) — it's not uncommon for major event organisers to skip the City of Churches for the East Coast. But in some good (and exclusive) Adelaide news, there's one stylish pop-up sure to delight the city's fashion fans.

Louis Vuitton has opened an exclusive space at Adelaide Central Plaza. Dedicated to the Maison's collections and a celebration of the unmatched savoir-faire of Louis Vuitton, its arrival marks the first of its kind from the House in Adelaide.

Visitors will be able to peruse a range of Louis Vuitton finely crafted men's and women's ready-to-wear, shoes, leather goods, accessories and fragrances — and right in time for Christmas shopping. They'll also be immersed in the store's new and modern architectural concepts, which reflects the latest in the House's innovative approach to design.

Discover the Louis Vuitton Adelaide pop-up store for yourself, open from now until December 28, 2023.
